

Tamara Darvish

Tamara Darvish is a vice president of DARCARS Automotive Group. DARCARS Automotive Group is a privately owned group of 28 dealerships in the Washington Metro area. She has held and currently holds positions on the Toyota & Chrysler dealer councils. Tamara Darvish was elected to the Toyota Dealer Advertising Association in 1988, becoming the secretary/treasurer in 1993 (a position still held). She has served as a member of the executive board of directors for Washington Area New Auto Dealers Association since 1995. She recently served as the first woman Chairman for the Washington Area New Auto Dealers Association. Currently, she is co-chair of the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society's Bobby Mitchell Hall of Fame Classic. Under her leadership, over $1 million is generated every year via numerous charity events to benefit various groups in the Washington Metro Area. Tamara Darvish is the keynote speaker each year for the WJLA Working Women of the Year Awards Luncheon. She has also served as the chairman of the Washington Auto Show for 1998 and 1999, and currently continues to serve on the committee. Tamara Darvish was recently elected to serve as the Washington DC Director on the Board of Directors at NADA, which she is currently serving. Tamara Darvish is a 2003 member of Leadership Washington. Tamara Darvish graduated from Northwood University with a B.A in Business Administration and an A. A. in Automotive Marketing.